

Journal of Autonomy and Security Studies
Volume 2 Issue 1

Table of Contents

About JASS	2
Foreword	3

Articles

Susann Simolin

The Aims of Åland and Finland Regarding a New Act on the Autonomy of Åland – An analysis of three parliamentary committee reports (2010–2017)	8
1. Introduction	9
1.1 Methodological reflections.....	10
1.2 Some conceptual observations	11
2. A background to the autonomy of Åland.....	13
2.1 The conflict.....	14
2.2 The solution	14
2.3 Implementation and development of the autonomy.....	16
3. The committee reports on the third revision of the Autonomy Act.....	17
3.1 The origins of the autonomy and the aims of a revision	18
3.1.1 Provincial committee	20
3.1.2 State committee	21
3.1.3 Joint committee	23
3.2 Legislative competences of Åland	25
3.2.1 The provincial committee.....	25
3.2.2 The state committee.....	26
3.2.3 The joint committee	26
3.3 The economic system of Åland.....	27
3.3.1 The provincial committee.....	28
3.3.2 The state committee	28
3.3.3 The joint committee	29

3.4 Legislative control of autonomy law and state law	30
3.4.1 The provincial committee.....	31
3.4.2 The state committee	31
3.4.3 The joint committee	32
3.4.4 Summary of findings in the three reports	32
4. Discussion.....	35
4.1 The issue of language and culture	35
4.2 Development of the autonomy	36
4.3 Relationship between Åland and Finland	39
5. Concluding remarks.....	42
6. References	46
Legal documents, parliamentary and government publications.....	46
Other publications.....	47

Rhodri Williams

One Hundred Years of Solitude: The Significance of Land

Rights for Cultural Protection in the Åland Islands	50
1. Introduction	51
2. Territorial protection in international law.....	54
3. The Historical Evolution and Role of the Åland Land Rules	58
3.1 Historical background prior to Finland's independence.....	60
3.2 Significance of land in the "Åland movement"	62
3.3 Implementation of the Åland land rules – from redemption to restriction	69
4. Conclusions	73
5. References	80

Additional Material

Upcoming Online Course	82
Call for Papers	85